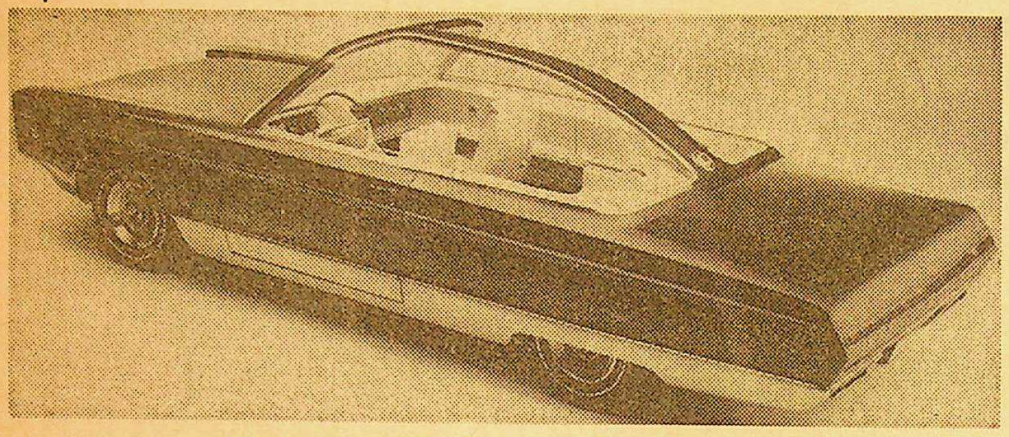
296-218

296-1.1

Connor Sticks to Estimate



Plymouth's Car of the Future

Designed to provide new comfort and safety, this idea car by Plymouth is called the "V.I.P." It has a glass top that retracts into the trunk. The instrument panel has a television screen that provides a constant picture of the road behind. Plymouth said it has no plans to produce the care commercially.

296/1.1